

I would like do-no-call protection in New Jersey to remain as strong as possible. I see absolutely no public interest in loosening this protection.